Anyone in there at GrandView of Roxborough?

Denver, Colorado - July 10, 2009 - That seems to be what this muley is thinking as he peers through the window at GrandView of Roxborough's sales center. Carol Pohl, Sales Assistant, snapped this picture early one morning just after arriving for work. She stated that she caught a movement out of the corner of her eye and saw the deer trying to nibble on the ornamental rubber tree near the entry. As she grabbed for her camera, the deer raised its head, looking directly in at her. Pohl commented that she frequently sees deer and other wildlife roaming near the office, but this one really seemed to want to come in and visit!
